IRVINE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 6, 2023-- Skyworks Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq: SWKS), an innovator of high-performance analog and mixed signal semiconductors connecting people, places and things, today reported first fiscal quarter results for the period ended Dec. 30, 2022.

Revenue for the first fiscal quarter of 2023 was $1.329 billion. On a GAAP basis, operating income for the first fiscal quarter was $367.0 million with diluted earnings per share of $1.93. On a non-GAAP basis, operating income was $491.3 million with non-GAAP diluted earnings per share of $2.59.

"Skyworks delivered solid first quarter results, leveraging our increasingly diverse portfolio of mobile and IoT solutions," said Liam K. Griffin, chairman, chief executive officer and president of Skyworks. "Revenue exceeded consensus estimates, and we delivered record quarterly operating cash flow. Moving forward, Skyworks is well positioned to navigate a challenging macro backdrop with its highly profitable business model, leading connectivity technologies and an expanding set of customers across many of the strongest market segments."

First Fiscal Quarter Business Highlights

- Partnered with AT&T to launch their first Wi-Fi 6 PON gateways
- Shipped into Wi-Fi 7 quad-band mesh router systems with TP-Link
- Leveraged our advanced connectivity portfolio to support Cambium Networks 6 GHz fixed wireless access points
- Shipped programmable timing platforms to a market-leading data center customer
- Enabled Power-over-Ethernet functionality in Cisco's modular switches for enterprise networks
- Delivered high performance timing solutions for 5G Massive MIMO deployments to a European infrastructure provider
- Captured EV on-board charging content with a Japanese automotive supplier
- Secured key automotive digital radio platforms with a top European OEM

Second Fiscal Quarter 2023 Outlook

We provide earnings guidance on a non-GAAP basis because certain information necessary to reconcile such guidance to GAAP is difficult to estimate and dependent on future events outside of our control. Please refer to the attached Discussion Regarding the Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures in this press release for a further discussion of our use of non-GAAP measures, including quantification of known expected adjustment items.

"Looking ahead to our second fiscal quarter of 2023, we anticipate revenue to be between $1.125 billion and $1.175 billion with non-GAAP diluted earnings per share of $2.02 at the midpoint of our revenue range," said Kris Sennesael, senior vice president and chief financial officer of Skyworks.

"Additionally, our board of directors has approved a new $2 billion stock repurchase program, demonstrating their confidence in our business and its ability to continue generating strong free cash flow."

Dividend Payment

Skyworks' board of directors has declared a cash dividend of $0.62 per share of the Company's common stock, payable on Mar. 21, 2023, to stockholders of record at the close of business on Feb. 28, 2023.

Safe Harbor Statement

This news release includes “forward-looking statements” intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include information relating to future results and expectations of Skyworks (e.g., certain projections and business trends, as well as plans for dividend payments, debt repayment and share repurchases). Forward-looking statements can often be identified by words such as “anticipates,” “expects,” “forecasts,” “intends,” “believes,” “plans,” “may,” “will” or “continue,” and similar expressions and variations or negatives of these words. All such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from those projected and may affect our future operating results, financial position and cash flows.

These risks, uncertainties and other important factors include: the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on business conditions in our industry, including supply constraints and supply chain disruptions, and the potential for the uncertain duration, severity and future impact of the pandemic, including as a result of more contagious variants of the virus that causes COVID-19, to result in significant disruptions to our business operations, as well as negative impacts to our financial condition; the susceptibility of the semiconductor industry and the markets addressed by our, and our customers', products to economic cycles, including a rise in inflation and the current heightened risk of recession; our reliance on a small number of key customers for a large percentage of our sales; the availability and pricing of third-party semiconductor foundry, assembly and test capacity, raw materials, supplier components, equipment and shipping and logistics services, including limits on our customers' ability to obtain such services and materials; the risks of doing business internationally, including increased import/export restrictions and controls (e.g., our ability to sell products to certain specified foreign entities only pursuant to a limited export license from the U.S. Department of Commerce), imposition of trade protection measures (e.g., tariffs or taxes), security and health risks, possible disruptions in transportation networks, fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, and other economic, social, military and geopolitical conditions in the countries in which we, our customers or our suppliers operate, including the war in Ukraine; delays in the deployment of commercial 5G networks or in consumer adoption of 5G-enabled devices; the volatility of our stock price; decreased gross margins and loss of market share as a result of increased competition; our ability to obtain design wins from customers; changes in laws, regulations and/or policies that could adversely affect our operations and financial results, the economy and our customers' demand for our products, or the financial markets and our ability to raise capital; fluctuations in our manufacturing yields due to our complex and specialized manufacturing processes; our ability to develop, manufacture and market innovative products, avoid product obsolescence, reduce costs in a timely manner, transition our products to smaller geometry process technologies and achieve higher levels of design integration; the quality of our products and any defect remediation costs; our products' ability to perform under stringent operating conditions; reduced flexibility in operating our business as a result of the indebtedness incurred in connection with the transaction with Silicon Laboratories Inc.; our ability to retain, recruit and hire key executives, technical personnel and other employees in the positions and numbers, with the experience and capabilities, and at the compensation levels needed to implement our business and product plans; the timing, rescheduling or cancellation of significant customer orders and our ability, as well as the ability of our customers, to manage inventory; our ability to prevent theft of our intellectual property, disclosure of confidential information or breaches of our information technology systems; uncertainties of litigation, including potential disputes over intellectual property infringement and rights, as well as payments related to the licensing and/or sale of such rights; our ability to continue to grow and maintain an intellectual property portfolio and obtain needed licenses from third parties; our ability to make certain investments and acquisitions, integrate companies we acquire and/or enter into strategic alliances; and other risks and uncertainties, including those detailed from time to time in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The forward-looking statements contained in this news release are made only as of the date hereof, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
