An on-demand, archived version of the presentation will be available beginning approximately 24 hours after the conclusion of the live Webcast and will continue for 30 days thereafter.

Company Summary

Alpha produces some of the world's most highly integrated RF semiconductor solutions and multi-chip modules for enhancing the speed, quality and performance of wireless voice, data and video communications. Alpha's GaAs switches, power amplifiers and discrete semiconductors have become reference products for many of the world's largest manufacturers of wireless handsets, mobile data devices, wireless infrastructure and broadband access platforms. Alpha's strategy is to leverage its industry-leading process breadth, which includes GaAs PHEMT, HBT, InGaP and associated RF process technologies, into increasing levels of component integration. As a result, the Company is winning new business for its growing line of integrated RF module solutions, which dramatically reduce design complexity and improve the OEM's time to market for new products.
