Safe Harbor Statement

This news release includes "forward-looking statements" intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include without limitation information relating to future results and expectations of Skyworks and AnalogicTech (including without limitation certain projections and business trends). Forward-looking statements can often be identified by words such as "anticipates," "expects," "forecasts," "intends," "believes," "plans," "may," "will," or "continue," and similar expressions and variations or negatives of these words. All such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from those projected, and may affect Skyworks' and AnalogicTech's respective future operating results, financial position and cash flows.

Actual results and events in future periods may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements because of a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements, including the expected benefits and costs of the transaction; management plans relating to the transaction; the expected timing of the completion of the transaction; the ability to complete the transaction; any statements of the plans, strategies and objectives of management for future operations, including the execution of integration plans; any statements of expectation or belief; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions include the possibility that expected benefits may not materialize as expected; that the transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that, prior to the completion of the transaction, AnalogicTech's business may experience disruptions due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors making it more difficult to maintain relationships with employees, customers or other business partners; that the parties are unable to successfully implement integration strategies; and other risks that are described in Skyworks' and AnalogicTech's respective SEC reports, including but not limited to the risks described in Skyworks' Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for its fiscal year ended September 30, 2011 and AnalogicTech's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, as well as subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.

These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
